

Takao Abe, Asahikawa University (Japan): "What Determines the Content of the Jesuit Relations?: The Reports from New France Compared with the Iberian Correspondence from Japan."

Commentator: Keith Widder, Michigan State University

Lunch 12:00-1:30. On your own

Outing to Drayton Hall Plantation 1:30-4:30 pm

Dinner on your own

Session 7: 5:30-7:00. Room 228

Slide Lecture on Charlesfort Archaeological Project followed by a roundtable

Introduction: Bertrand van Ruymbeke, Université de Toulouse

Speaker: Chester B. DePratter, University of South Carolina
"The French in Florida (1562-1565): History and Archaeology."

Saturday, May 20

Registration: 8:00-8:30 am

Session 8: 8:30-10:00. Room 228

On the Margins of Iberian America

Chair: John McGrath, Boston University

Russell Magnaghi, Northern Michigan University: "The French and Sassafras."

John Nothnagle, University of Iowa (Emeritus): "French Brazil."

Silvia C. Shannon, Saint Anselm College: "From Trade Colony to Catholic Mission: Transformation of the French Expedition to Maranhão, 1612-1615."

Commentator: Laura Fishman, City University of New York, York College

Coffee Break: 10:00-10:30

Session 9a: 10:30-12:00. Room 228

Le Mississippi

Chair: Greg Waselkov, University of South Alabama

Cécile Vidal, Université de Grenoble: "Inter-ethnic Relations in the French Villages of the Illinois Country from 1699 to 1765."

Sophie Burton, Texas Christian University: "Women of French Colonial Natchitoches, Louisiana, 1714-1766."

Commentator: Joe Zitomersky, Université de Montpellier

Session 9b: 10:30-12:00. Room 226

The Eighteenth Century Empire

Chair: Neil Greenwood, Cleveland State Community College

Alain Laberge, Université Laval: "L'implantation de la paroisse dans la vallée du Saint-Laurent aux XVIIe et XVIIIe siècles."

Eric Jarvis, King's College (Ontario): "Aliens and Papists: Colonial French Catholics After the Conquest in Quebec, West Florida and Grenada, 1763-1774."

Jacques Binoche, University of French Polynesia: "French Colonial Views from 1763-1789."

Commentator: Dale Standen, Trent University

Lunch: 12:00-1:30. On your own

Session 10a: 1:30-3:00. Room 228

French North Africa

Chair and Commentator: Fred Quinn, Foreign Service (Retired)

Jonathan Gosnell, Smith College: "La Patria española or l'Algérie française?"

Anny Wynchank, University of Cape Town: "La communauté juive d'une ville frontrière du Maghreb dans les années 40 et 50: une communauté divisée."

Beatrice Aaronson, University of South Carolina: "Vivre l'Orange: Origins and Self. A Cixolian Jew-cy Writing of Identity."

Session 10b: 1:30-3:00. Room 226

French Colonial and Other Slave Systems

Chair: Rosemary Brana-Shute, College of Charleston

Nathalie Dessens, Université de Toulouse: "Slave Societies in a Comparative Perspective: the Debate over Abolition."

Judith Coffin and James Sidbury, University of Texas, Austin: "Race, Slavery and History in the Shadow of French and Haitian Revolutions."

Lawrence Jennings, University of Ottawa: "Slave Resistance and the Abolition of French Colonial Slavery, 1830-1848."

Commentator: Sue Peabody, Washington State University, Vancouver

FCHS Business Meeting: 3:00-4:00 pm.
The Avery Research Center for African American History and Culture (125 Bull Street)

Tour of The Avery Research Center for African American History and Culture: 4:00-5:15 pm

Banquet: Conference Center Lobby

Open Bar: 7:00 - 8:00 pm

Banquet: 8:00 - 10:00 pm

Sunday, May 21: Outing to Charlesfort and Beaufort
Meet at Conference Center, 8:30 am (return late afternoon)

Program Chair: Philip Boucher
Local Arrangements Coordinators: Robert Rhodes Crout and Bertrand van Ruymbeke

Assistance was generously provided by:

The College of Charleston

The Program in the Carolina Lowcountry and The Atlantic World

W. Marvin Dulaney, Chair, College of Charleston History Department

The Avery Research Center for African American History and Culture

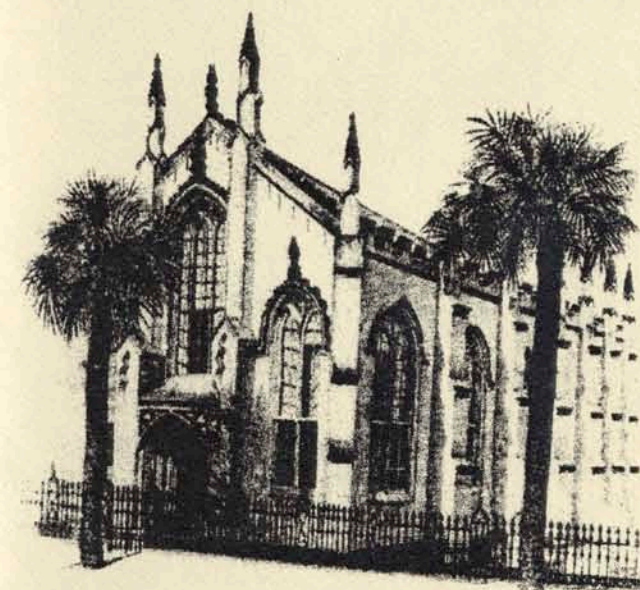

J. Victor Brandt III

Charleston Chapter of the Alliance Française

The Lightsey Conference Center

Judith L. Sawyer

26th Meeting of The French Colonial Historical Society

The Huguenot Church

*Charleston, South Carolina
May 17-20, 2000*

